REFERENCES AND CITATIONS STYLE GUIDE

RS Global publisher strongly recommends authors to use American Psychological Association (APA) style for citations and references. For details, please refer to APA Formatting and Style Guide or contact with a journal's editorial office if you have any questions regarding the preparation of citations or references.

IN-TEXT CITATIONS

Short quotations

According to Squires (2018), "In 1988, 44% of African American students attended majority-White schools; 20% do so today" (p. 40)

Long quotations

Squires's (2018) study found the following:

The federal government spends $36 billion annually on housing assistance for households earning up to $40,000 a year while spending $43.9 billion (primarily via various mortgage related and capital gains tax breaks) on households earning $200,000 or more. Annual federal housing spending per household is $1,529 for households making less than $20,000 compared to $6,076 per household for those earning $200,000 or more (p. 70)

Long quotations (more than 40 words) should be typed in a separate block indented by 0.5 inches from both sides.
